Labor Day

Join us for 9:00 am Mass
Monday, September 5, 2011

Let us pray together for those in need of work,
those in need of business,
employers, and employees,
and the entire Dayton community. Amen

Please note that all parish offices and building will be closed on Labor Day.

Have a safe and enjoyable holiday!

Also, as they have in the past, the city of Kettering has requested the use of our grounds to dismantle floats after the Holiday at Home parade. They ask that we vacate the parking lot after the 9 am Mass. Please remember this when you attend the Mass that day. You can only enter the parking lot from the Dorothy Lane entrance as Far Hills is blocked for the parade.

Attention Parish Artisans

The Archdiocese has asked all parishes to provide an ornament for a Christmas tree at the Cathedral in Cincinnati. They have given us size specifications they would like to have followed which are available at the parish office.

If you would like to produce a ornament please contact the parish office (293-1191, Mon thru Fri, 9 am to 4:30 pm) and we will gladly give you their specifications.

From the Pastor

Dear People of St. Albert the Great....

PARISH NEWS

Tomorrow, September 5th, we celebrate Labor Day. We will have one Mass at 9 am that day. You can only enter our parking area by the Dorothy Lane entrance on Labor Day since Far Hills is blocked due to the Holiday at Home parade. Join us for the 9 am Mass. Our local community and our country have many people unemployed. Both employers and employees have been struggling with our economy for the past several years. It's a good time to pray for those going through these difficult times and for our economy to rebound. Have a safe holiday.

THE GOOD NEWS

Mrs. Jones thought she'd lived a perfect life because "I've never bothered anybody." So when she went to hell, she complained bitterly. St. Peter said, "The only time that selfish woman ever helped anyone was the day she gave a poor beggar an onion." So they agreed to lower the onion down to hell, and if the lady grabbed on, she could be pulled up to heaven.

She was overjoyed! But as she grabbed the onion, some of her companions grabbed on, to get out, too. She began kicking them off, screaming, "Let go, let go-that's MY onion!" Instantly the line snapped, and she fell back into Satan's waiting arms. He only smiled: "Too bad! The rope was strong enough to save all of you... but not you by yourself." (J. Feehan)

True, she didn't owe anything to anyone-but that's what put her in hell! St. Paul says, "Owe nothing to anyone, EXCEPT to love one another"; that is how to fulfill the law. Have you ever thought of the Great Commandment that way? That we actually owe it to each other to "love one another"? We don't think that way about strangers, do we? But every one of us is connected by our spiritual "gene pool" to every other creature... because we have been loved into existence from the heart of God.

Even if we don't "feel loving" toward strangers, we can form the habit of "doing love" in many small ways. Each of us has to look at every situation in our lives, to see if we are truly whole-heartedly loving one another. Or are we kicking people off, trying to hang on to our "onion"?

Peace.... Fr. Tom

VBS UPDATE: BOOK DONATION

The books that were donated during PandaMania went to a group called For Love of Children, Inc. FLOC is a volunteer group which raises funds to provide enrichment and educational activities for children newborn to 18 years of age throughout the Dayton area. FLOC supports a Children's reading corner in each of the Job & Family Services locations. Volunteers schedule reading hours and children are allowed to take the books home free of charge.

We received a very nice Thank You note from Sylvia Canessa and the FLOC board thanking us for the generous book donation. The note went on to say that the books will be a blessing to many children.
Thank you for your generosity.

School News

From the Principal:

On Thursday our entire school participated in the joyful Cross I retreat. This retreat was designed to fill students with excitement about their faith and encourage them to keep their eyes on the cross in all that they do. It utilized high-energy praise and worship music, infusing the day with a bit of a "rally" feel. Students explored different dimensions of their faith through circuit training, multimedia presentations, peer ministry and prayer.

Our Curriculum Night is this coming Wednesday evening beginning at 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel. These parent only meetings are designed for the teachers to meet families and provide information regarding curriculum, activities, and expectations for the new school year.

The PTO kicked off our Magazine Sale this past Tuesday. The profits from this drive fund many of our field trips and supplies needed in the classrooms. Please, if you have any magazine subscriptions to renew, contact a student from Saint Albert.

Thank you for your support and please keep us in your prayers.
