Annual Mass of Remembrance Saturday, Oct. 29, 2011 during the 4:30 Mass

We will honor the memory of members of our parish who died this past year. We will read the names and ring a toll bell for each person. A candle will be burning on the window ledges of our Church and in the Chapel with each person's name. Their families are invited to attend this Mass and to take the candle home in remembrance of their loved one.

If you have a loved one who died during this past year but they were not buried at St Albert, we would be happy to include them in this Mass. Please contact Paula Smith, 434-8506 and leave the name of your deceased loved one and the date of their death.

Let us pray for all our deceased loved ones and for their families. We all belong to the Communion of Saints.

Visit Our New Website!

www.stalbertthegreat.net

We are pleased to share with you a behind-the-scenes project we've been working on for the last few months.

St. Albert the Great parish has a new website!

An additional feature has been added enabling parishioner to view Mass - both live and recorded as well as any special events we have in church! The company providing this service is CHURCHCAST

We now have a scrolling "Headlines" feature, where you'll find several relevant topics. On the right-hand column, you'll find quick links to the Parish bulletin, calendar, online giving, and the Great Gazette newsletter. Below this area are useful links, with current parish events and the Mass times are to the left. When the Mass time is clicked, it takes you to the ChurchCast website, where you can watch live or recorded St. Albert the Great Masses.

Be sure to bookmark the new site at www.stalbertthegreat.net.

Previous bookmarks will take you to our old site.

From the Pastor

Dear People of St. Albert the Great...

PARISH NEWS

As you know, there will be some changes to the responses - both verbal and music - at Mass at the beginning of Advent, November 26th. This will be a true translation from the original Latin to English. The changes won't be major for the faithful...but change is change. All registered parishioners should receive a mailing this week that will include our parish newsletter explaining this process and giving a timeframe; a booklet with some often asked questions about these changes; and a card with the new prayer responses. When the First Sunday of Advent arrives, November 26, we will have cards in the pews with the updated prayer responses. As you know, we already have begun practicing the new musical responses. Our committee has been working to make this an easy transition and I thank them for their outstanding efforts. You will find more information in the Gathering Space.

THE GOOD NEWS

Is it driving anyone else crazy how the words "icon" and "iconic" seem to be so grossly overused lately? Every old musician making a comeback is "an icon," and every quirky film made before 1980 is "iconic". Well, at least Jesus is using it correctly in the gospel today!

When a king came to power he would stamp his own image and title on the coins to show that they all belonged to him. So, when the Pharisees say that it is Caesar's icon or image on the coin, Jesus has a clever reply. "Then give back to Caesar what belongs to him-and give back to God what belongs to God." Theologically, though, there is a deeper meaning. Jesus' words do not mean that God and Caesar are equals. "Humans bear God's image, and wherever they live and operate-whether in the social, economic, political, or religious realm-they belong to God. Their primary loyalties do not switch when they move out of church and into the voting booth."

For years, people have tried to solve "church and state" issues by quoting Jesus, as if we have to choose between being good citizens or good Christians. But Jesus doesn't solve those issues. He gives us the sacred principle: all God's children are stamped with the Divine Icon. We must struggle with how our "family relationship" bears on our decisions. Do you feel joyful, knowing you are stamped with God's icon?

Peace... Fr. Tom

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick Sunday, October 30 following 11:00 am Mass.

Lord God, you said to us through your apostle James:

"Are there people sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and let the priests pray over them anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord."

We ask that the elderly, those suffering illness, and anyone facing surgery, as well as those who wish to be anointed, stay after the Mass and sit near the Tabernacle for the Anointing Service.

Our priests will be present for this Service. We are blessed at St. Albert the Great to have dedicated priests who minister to us and pray for us everyday. Let us keep them in our daily prayers.

If you have questions, please call Paula Smith at 434-8506.

School News

From the Principal:

With Election Day and Veteran's Day just around the corner, this provides for us the excellent opportunity to explain our social studies curriculum. Social studies as taught at Saint Albert the Great is to focus on peace and justice issues. Students learn to view the world through Catholic teachings and to apply those beliefs/values to social issues.

Through these teachings, the curriculum aims to help children make discoveries about the people, culture, geography, and history of their home communities as well as other nations and cultures. In addition to studying people, places, and events that shaped history, students acquire and practice skills that will allow them to identify and analyze social problems.

On Friday we will have reached the end of the first quarter of the school year. Report Cards will be available online beginning at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, October 28. Our Parent/Teacher Conferences are scheduled for Wednesday, November 2 from 4:00 – 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, November 3 from 11:00 a.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Our first Town Hall meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 27 @ 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Officer Wayne Vilelli of the Kettering Police Department will be with us to talk about Internet safety.

We are very sorry - but we do not have any Mass Intentions available for the remainder of 2011. We will not have the 2012 Mass Book until closer to the end of the year. We will let you know when we are able to begin scheduling for 2012. To be fair to everyone we will have to limit how many requests we can accept due to the limited number of Masses. We do have the option of sending requests to the missions if you would like that alternate. Thank you for your understanding.
